

Receipt of Statement of Objection from the European Commission

All Nippon Airways Co Ltd (ANA) confirms that it has received a Statement of Objections on 21stxx DecNovember 2007 with respect to alleged anti-competitive behaviour in Air Freight TransportAir Freight Transport Services.

ANA was requested by the Commission on 18 December 2006 to provide information relating to our Air Freight business, and ANA has cooperated fully with the Commission on this matter. ANA will investigate the findings and respond in due course through its lawyer.

ANA will examine the European Commission's preliminary findings as reported in the Statement of Objections and will respond in due course. ANA has cooperated fully with the Commission and will continue to do so.