

ANA to Expand Narita-Seoul Route

~ from daily to double-daily ~

Tokyo, December 7 – ANA will expand its Narita-Seoul (Incheon) route from daily to double-daily during the spring period from February 10 to March 23, 2010. Adding to the original daily mono-class service using Airbus 320-200, the new service will be using Boeing 767-300ER in a two-class configuration.

Along with our Haneda-Seoul (Gimpo) double-daily services, customers now have more choices from our four daily flights between the cities of Tokyo and Seoul. We hope our customers find these new options both useful and convenient.

Detail of the new service are as follows:

New Service

Flight Number	Route	Aircraft Type	Remarks
NH917 NH918	Narita = Seoul (Incheon)	767-300ER	*operating February 10, 2010 ~ March 23, 2010
