

ANA Card Family Mile Application Form Please read the enclosed guide, and then fill in the information inside the thick-bordered boxes.

The ANA Card Family Mile service is available to individual ANA Card members who reside in Japan, as well as the member's spouse / same sex marriage partner and relatives of the first degree of kinship who share the same household income and live together with the member.

All participants age 18 or older (excluding high school students) must be individual ANA Card members or ANA Card family members. Only participants who are less than age 18, and 18-year-old high school students, may use this service if they are ANA Mileage Club Card members. The Family Mile service may be used by one primary member (the representative for this service) and up to nine family members.

• Please fill in all required information in the thick-bordered boxes, and then send this application form together with the required documents via postal mail.

1) Primary Member The primary member should sign here. • The primary member must be an individual ANA Card member and use the ANA Card as their main card.

Required documents For postal applications, one of the following documents is required. Please include it together with your application form.

- 1. Copy of health insurance certificate (For all applicants. Side showing full name, date of birth, and address [both sides for cards].)
 - Please black out the identifier, number and insured person's ID number (including the 2D barcode if there is one) so that they cannot be recognized.
- 2. Copy of Residence Certificate (Issued within the past three months. Must show the relationships, names, and dates of birth of all applicants including the primary member.)
 - Please ensure that no Individual Numbers (My Numbers) are included.
 - If an Individual Number (My Number) is included, take measures before sending, such as blacking it out with an oil-based permanent marker, to ensure that the number cannot be recovered.
 - For partners in same-sex marriages, please include together with your application form either a Copy of Residence Certificate as per 2. above or an official document from a local government authority which certifies partnership status.
 - For applicants who are not living together due to circumstances such as work, school and medical care, you must submit either a copy of a health insurance certificate with which dependency can be confirmed (same as above) or a copy of your Family Register (issued within the past three months).
 - Individual Number (My Number) Cards or notification cards are not accepted as confirmation documents.

2) Family Members Fill in the required information for family member applicants. (For family members who are not ANA Mileage Club members, please apply after completing the application procedures and receiving an ANA Mileage Club customer number.)

• Family members must be ANA Card members or family members who reside in Japan, and who share the same household income and live together with the primary member. Only participants who are less than age 18, and 18-year-old high school students, may use this service if they are ANA Mileage Club Card members.
