

ANA Card Family Mile Application Form Please read the enclosed guide, and then fill in the information inside the thick-bordered boxes.

The ANA Card Family Mile service is available to individual ANA Card members who reside in Japan, as well as the member's spouse / same sex marriage partner and relatives of the first degree of kinship who share the same household income and live together with the member. All participants age 18 or older (excluding high school students) must be individual ANA Card members or ANA Card family members. Only participants who are less than age 18, and 18-year-old high school students, may use this service if they are ANA Mileage Club Card members. The Family Mile service may be used by one primary member (the representative for this service) and up to nine family members. • Please fill in all required information in the thick-bordered boxes, and then send this application form together with the Confirmation Documents via postal mail.

I) Primary Member The primary member should sign here. • The primary member must be an individual ANA Card member and use the ANA Card as their main card.
