EXPLORING NEW HORIZONS!

ANA Expands International Network from Tokyo's Haneda Airport with New Code-share Flights

TOKYO October 15, 2010 – ANA today announced further expansion of international services from the newly refurbished Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) as part of its strategy to become Asia's leading carrier.

ANA is to begin operating international code-share flights from Haneda with Air Canada (AC), Air China (CA), Asiana Airlines (OZ), Singapore Airlines (SQ), and Thai Airways International (TG), all members of Star Alliance, as well as with Eva Airways (BR) and Malaysia Airlines (MH).

The expansion at Haneda follows completion of a new international terminal at the airport, from where international passengers will be able to access more than 200 Japanese domestic flights and rapid connections to central Tokyo. The Haneda plan complements ANA's strong presence at Tokyo's Narita airport, Japan's primary international hub.

Total 11 routes and 44 daily flights out of Haneda

Under the plan, ANA's has reached agreement with seven airlines that will enable the Japanese carrier to offer 11 international routes and up to 44 overseas flights a day from Haneda, almost doubling the daily flight frequency and expanding the route network by a third.

ANA's operation of nine international routes will be increased with two new routes as code-shares within the ANA network; Haneda=Vancouver route operated by Air Canada and Haneda=Kota Kinabalu route operated by Malaysia Airlines. Moreover, ANA will start code-shares on four flights to Singapore with Singapore Airlines, two flights to Bangkok with Thai Airways International, two flights to Seoul (Gimpo) with Asiana Airlines, two flights to Beijing with Air China, and four flights to Taipei (Songshan) with Eva Airways.

Furthermore, ANA will increase the number of U.S. domestic destinations that customers can access via ANA's Haneda=Los Angeles service, utilizing the carrier's continued co-operation with its U.S. partners in Star Alliance; United Airlines, Continental Airlines, and US Airways.
