ANA supports humanitarian relief effort for Typhoon Etau

ANA to provide financial aid

TOKYO, September 14, 2015 – ANA has pledged to donate 3 million yen to the Japanese Red Cross Society in order to provide support to victims of Typhoon Etau and the accompanying floods which have caused devastation across Eastern Japan. Members of the ANA Mileage Club will also be able to donate their frequent flyer miles in order to support the relief effort, with ANA providing the Red Cross Society with 3,000 yen for every 3,000 miles donated through this scheme.

Osamu Shinobe, CEO of ANA, commented:
"ANA extends its deepest sympathies to all those affected by this disaster. The Japanese Red Cross Society is providing vital relief at this critical time and we hope to help support their endeavors."

Donating through ANA Mileage Club

ANA Mileage Club members can donate their frequent flyer miles in order to support the relief effort. ANA will donate a monetary amount to the Japanese Red Cross Society's appeal:

- Donation units: Miles can be donated in units of 3,000 miles (equivalent to 3,000 yen).
- Donation period: 10:00 a.m. September 16, 2015 (Wednesday) - 5:00 p.m. on October 30, 2015 (Friday) (Japan Standard Time).
- Eligible persons: Donations can be made by all ANA Mileage Club Members.
- How to donate: Please make donations via ANA Sky Web (www.ana.co.jp).
