ANA Yose

Rakugo performance and other Japanese variety entertainment.

Rakugo "Fugunabe"/Katsura Bunka

Back in a time before licenses for fugu chefs existed, a man is having 2nd thoughts before trying a fugu hot pot for the 1st time. He comes across a gullible fellow and, under the guise of buying him a meal, he tries to convince the man to taste the dish 1st to make sure it's safe...

Katsura Bunka

Born: Osaka, 1964. He was a member of a rakugo research club in both high school and university, before starting in rakugo under Katsura Kobunshi III (afterwards, Bunshi V) in 1988. He puts a lot of importance on accurately reflecting the sentiments of the characters he plays, resulting in a great admiration for his ability to relay the world of rakugo to audiences.

Rakugo "Busshiya Nusutto"/Shofukutei Rokaku

This story is set in a time when stealing large sums of money was a crime punishable by death. In the dead of the night, a thief sneaks into the home of an artisan who carves and repairs statues of Buddha and demands money, but the artisan appears neither panicked or scared...

Shofukutei Rokaku

Born: Hyogo, 1950. He began his rakugo career under Shofukutei Shokaku VI in 1969 under the name of Rokaku. He has concentrated his efforts on mainly Osaka style classic rakugo, in Kansai entertainment halls, solo performances and charity events and is currently a powerhouse in the industry.

(All recorded at Yokohama Nigiwaiza, Kanagawa on November 12, 2023.)
